

I live in NJ and can now enjoy a nice quiet evening at home because I signed up for the telephone solicitation no call list. I feel I have not invited these solicitors into my home and I should not have to listen to their constant telephone rings. Please do not change the law in New Jersey, it is working